

Links Lessons Slated to Begin

New series of golf lessons for youth and adults will begin Tuesday, according to the Torrance Recreation Dept.

Classes for youth, 9-17 years are scheduled Tuesday through Thursday afternoons at El Nido Park and July 19 through 22 at Torrance Park.

For adults, instruction will be given at Sea-Aire Golf Course with sessions set up for Tuesday and Thursday, and Wednesday and Friday evenings.

Swim Instructions For Teens, Adults

Swimming instruction for teen-agers and adults will begin this week at Benstead Plunge, according to the Torrance Recreation Department.

Eight lessons will be given to teen-agers starting at 5:30 p.m. Monday and continuing for four weeks.

Lessons for adults will start at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday and eight semi-weekly sessions are planned.

Torrance Grabs Pair in Mack Contests

Bo Palica's Connie Mack team grabbed a pair of wins over the weekend, topping Westchester, 6-1 and pasting the San Pedro nine, 15-0, as Bill Hogue hurled a two-hit shutout.

Glenn Hopper and Hogue both banged out three hits in four trips to the plate to pace the 17-hit Torrance attack.

Tom Morris tossed the win at Westchester, holding the losers to five hits. Morris had

Giants Pound Buc Pitching

Harbor City's Little League Giants pounded Pirate pitching for 37 runs in two games last week as they belted the Buccaneers, 18-2 and 19-0.

Mark Milburn smashed a pair of homers, one a grand slam in the 18-2 out, while Giant pitcher Dennis Schule, with pin point control, fanned all 18 Pirates in the whitewash job, while giving up only three hits.

In other action, the Dodgers took two from the Phil-

Hollypark Features Gold Cup

Attention of the thoroughbred racing world this week will be centered upon Hollywood Park's $162,100 Hollywood Gold Cup, one of the richest races on the American turf which will be decided Saturday at a mile and a quarter.

This will be the twenty-first running of the Hollypark classic, which in the past has been won by such famous thoroughbreds as Seabiscuit, Challenged, Noor, Citation, Two Lea, Swaps, Round Table, Gallant Man and Hilldale.

Considered certain starters in the big race, for which the winner will receive $102,100, are Bagdad with 122 pounds, Eddie Schmidt with 112, Twentyone Guns 112, Prize Host 109 and Dotted Swiss 107.

In Hollywood Park competition so far this season Bagdad won the Inglewood Handicap, Eddie Schmidt was a fast-closing second in the $113,300 Californian, Twentyone Guns won the overnight Swaps Handicap from Prize Host and was second to him in the American Handicap, Prize Host went wire-to-wire in the American and Dotted Swiss took the Cortez Handicap.

After his tremendous race in the Cortez Handicap, when he shouldered 124 pounds and ran the mile and one-quarter in 1:59.4-5, with a final 440 in 24 seconds flat, C. V. Whitney's Dotted Swiss, a "dark horse" earlier in the meeting, may wind up as the post time favorite in the Gold Cup. Shedding seventeen pounds for Saturday's classic entitles him to move up more than six lengths, or a time that would equal Swaps' Gold Cup race record of 1:58 3-5.

Leading the league in home runs on the season was Lou Maynard of the Braves hit 8.

Gary Fulton, Rick Moton and Rod Lorenzen were named from the Braves, and Fred Kindell and Sam Intermill represent the Cubs.

Danny Kling was the home player from the Stars, while Steve Horen and John Czekowski were named from the Phillies.

Sam Snyder is the All-Star manager, and he named Jim Sonju, Stars, and Dave Firelo, Phillies, as alternates.
